LILLIAN DREW WINS ORATORICAL CONTEST

A crowded house greeted the contestants in the oratorical elimination contest at the United church on Friday night last, when Lillian Drew, pupil of St. Michael's high school, Pincher Creek, competed against Megan Jones, of the Coleman high. The subject of discourse was: "Canada Amongst The Nations," and both girls handled the subject in a very creditable manner.

The chair was occupied by W. H. Chappell, chairman of the local school board, while Donald MacPherson, school principal, acted as contest manager. Rev. Father Donovan, of Bellevue; Rev. Roy C. Taylor, of Hillcrest, and Mr. C. C. Bremner, school inspector, of Macleod, acted as judges.

In supporting their decision, the judges urged the two contestants to stay with it, that a very great future was in store for them. While Miss Drew last year's district champion, won the decision, it was only by a very narrow margin.

A few musical numbers were interspersed in the programme, including piano duets by Misses Thompson and Hamilton, vocal solos by Miss Lena Fraser, violin solos by Mr. Joe Jasbee, of Hillcrest, and selections by the Upton trio, all of which were much enjoyed.

Coleman high school was well represented in the gathering.

CECIL RHYS DIES OF INJURIES AT HILLCREST

An unfortunate accident occurred at Hillcrest mine on Saturday afternoon last, when Cecil Rhys, a Welsh miner, sustained injuries to his back from a fall of coal, which resulted in his death about twelve hours later in the Hillcrest hospital.

Cecil was a particular favorite with all with whom he came into contact. Gifted with rare ability as a vocalist, he won a place in the hearts of the music loving public of the Pass. Just the night before the accident, he took part in the St. David's Day celebration at Hillcrest, as a soloist and in trios and duets with his brothers Percy and Edgar, and he had arranged to appear with his brothers and other members of the Hillcrest Concert Party at the United church, Blaimore, on Sunday night, and again at a concert arranged to be held in the church here on Wednesday night of this week. Cecil, we learn, was also entered as a contestant in the forthcoming Crows' Nest Pass Musical Festival.

He is survived by his aged widowed mother, residing at Gowerton, Swansea, South Wales, and five brothers, also in the old land; also three brothers and a sister residing at Hillcrest. His father died in the old country a number of years ago. He was but twenty-six years and eleven months old.

Funeral took place at Hillcrest on Tuesday afternoon and was very largely attended. An impressive service was conducted at the United church by the Rev. Roy C. Taylor. The remains were laid to rest in the Hillcrest cemetery.

An inquest was conducted at the Community Hall at Hillcrest on Monday before Coroner A. M. Morrison, of Coleman, with the following jury empanelled: Stephen Davies, Foreman; Phil McNeill, Grant McKinnis, L. F. White, Harry Sibbs and Harry Orr. After hearing the evidence of a number of witnesses, the following verdict was returned:

"We find that Cecil Rhys came to his death in the Hillcrest hospital at 2.30 a.m. on Sunday, the 3rd day of March, 1929, from shock caused by being hit by a fall of rock in pillar 010, Hillcrest Collieries' mine, on Saturday, March 2nd, 1929, at 2.15 p.m. We find no blame attached to any person."

DEATH OF JOSEPH SEMPLE

Following close upon the tragic death of Mr. Cecil Rhys at Hillcrest is the passing away of another prominent and highly respected citizen of that community in the person of Mr. Joseph Semple, who for the past year or more has been in charge of the Hillcrest branch business of Burns & Co., Limited.

Mr. Semple was taken ill about a week ago. On Monday, acting upon the advice of his medical attendant, he went to Calgary for special treatment, accompanied by Mr. Joseph Atkinson. Word of his sudden demise on Tuesday evening came as a great shock to the people of the community and general sympathy is extended to his bereaved wife and her six small children.

The remains were brought back to Hillcrest by this morning's train, and funeral takes place tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, the remains to be laid to rest in Hillcrest cemetery.

Mr. Semple was a devout member of Turtle Mountain Lodge, Knights of Pythias, and the members of that organization are in charge of funeral arrangements.

Radio Broadcasting In Canada

The Canadian Government recently appointed a Royal Commission to study and make report on the whole subject of radio broadcasting in Canada. That Commission, headed by Sir John Aldrich, is at present in Europe studying the methods employed in Great Britain and some of the continental countries. It proposes to also study the methods followed in the United States and, later, will hold public sittings throughout Canada with a view to obtaining the opinions of Canadian citizens.

The importance of this Commission's work can hardly be overstated. Radio has, in a few short years, come to occupy a vital position in the lives of the people, while the future possibilities of this newest form of entertainment, and its importance as a means of publicity, are such that the national interests demand that a well defined policy in the interests of all concerned, but more particularly in the interests of the Dominion itself, be developed with the least possible delay.

The question that naturally arises in the minds of patriotic Canadians is whether or not the radio in Canada is to be dominated by wealthy and powerful private interests in the United States, just as the moving picture business has been, or whether Canada will itself develop an acceptable system of national broadcasting.

It has to be recognized and accepted as a fact that the great United States moving picture corporations control the situation in Canada, if not through actual ownership and management of Canadian moving picture theatres, at least through the making and distribution of the films that are shown in this country. There can be no successful denial of the assertion that because of this control of films it is possible for United States ideas, sentiments, enterprises, modes of living, and general propaganda of all kinds, to be insidiously injected into the lives and thoughts of the Canadian people. In a word, one of the most powerful agencies for the dissemination of ideas throughout Canada is in the hands of private and wealthy corporations in a foreign country.

To a large extent, the same situation has developed through the enormous circulation which United States magazines and periodicals of all kinds have secured in Canada. Apart from the effect which the reading matter in these periodicals has upon Canadian thought, the advertising matter constitutes a powerful agency attracting millions of Canadian dollars across the line for the purchase of United States products.

In Great Britain radio broadcasting is under the direction of the Government through the medium of a national broadcasting organization. Owners of receiving sets pay a license fee, and the money thus realized is expended in providing worthwhile programmes. In the United States, on the other hand, broadcasting is in the hands of private interests. "Good programmes are nationally broadcasted, but they are paid for through advertising sandwiched in at intervals throughout the programmes." All this material, specially prepared for United States consumption and to meet the requirements and promote the interests of United States business, is carried through the air into hundreds of thousands of Canadian homes every day, in the year.

It is not necessary to be anti-American, or in the slightest degree unfriendly to the United States, to nevertheless realize that this is not a good thing for Canada in a national sense. Our Canadian broadcasting stations are widely scattered over the Dominion. They have not the broadcasting power of the big U.S. stations. Nor have they the resources to finance the same type of high class and expensive programmes offered in the United States. Canadian national advertisers have not the same large market to appeal to, and consequently cannot afford to spend tens of thousands of dollars in radio advertising.

Furthermore, do the Canadian people prefer private control of radio broadcasting, financed on the basis of advertising, to the system which finds favor in Great Britain of national broadcasting financed through the payment of a reasonable annual license fee by owners of receiving sets who are the real beneficiaries of the broadcast?

The influence of radio must be admitted. It already occupies a position along with the newspaper and the moving picture as a medium of information and a source of education and entertainment. It is here, and here to stay, to grow, to develop as perhaps few even now imagine. It will be a power for tremendous good or evil. It is essential that Canada, not neglecting the opportunity it presents, should adopt a wise policy in regard thereto.

One spoonful of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia neutralizes instantly many times its volume in acid. It is harmless and tasteless and its action is quick. You will never rely on crude methods, never continue to suffer when you learn how quickly, how pleasantly this premier method acts. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting acid cases. Each bottle contains full directions—any drugstore.

Canada's Climate Attractive

Even Winter Weather Is Enjoyed By Majority Of People

The Montreal Star says: "It has been the fashion for many years to quote Canada as a wintry land. The habit has persisted, despite the actual facts regarding our climate, which probably presents the widest latitude in conditions of any country in the world today. But just now Europe is having a taste of what a really hard winter can achieve. Steel bridges have been cracked in two by Arctic temperatures of a severity almost unknown in modern records. Shipping in the north is icebound, and even the Black Sea is beginning to freeze over—an event unprecedented within living memory.

Now if the people who are at present suffering so acutely were in Canada, they would be enjoying themselves. We have not been attacked by an unprecedented cold weather, and the general conditions throughout the country have not been such as to cause any discomfort. Indeed, there is good ground for utilizing the attractiveness of our climate as a drawing card for intending immigrants, instead of frightening them with lurid pictures of winter of an Arctic character. A little more truth, and a little less hard rubbish, would help immigration better than lantern slides and flaming posters on the walls."

LIFE WAS A BURDEN

Health Restored Through the Use Of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills

"I am writing to express my gratitude for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me," says Mrs. W. J. Dowling, Tottenham, Ont., and further says: "I was so badly run down that I felt that life was a burden. The doctor said my trouble was due to poor blood, but his medicine did not help me. My face was sallow, my lips bloodless and at the least exertion my heart would palpitate so violently that I would have to lie down. My feet and legs would swell and cramp, and all my friends thought I was in a decline. In this condition I was urged by a friend to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got three boxes, and to my delight, the time I had used them I began to feel better. I got a further supply and kept on taking them. Daily I felt myself growing stronger. The color returned to my cheeks and lips and I felt a new interest in life. To sum up I can now say that I am feeling fine, for which I give the credit to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I strongly recommend to all weak girls and women."

Where Nobody Is Young

Nobody is young in the little village of Bursledon, Hampshire. The inhabitants boast that their average age, in proportion to the population, is the highest in the country. There are twenty-seven old folk whose years total 2,115—an average of seventy-eight each. Once Bursledon was a thriving community, but now strawberry growing is the only industry. All the young people have left for more fruitful fields.

Papered With Postage Stamps

In Near Bognor, England, Is Known As Stamp House

Near Bognor, where the King has been removed for his convalescence, there is an inn known as Stamp House. Its walls and ceilings are completely papered with old postage stamps, and fastenings of them are looped from one side of a room to the other. The "collection" was started many years ago by a former host of the place, who had a passion for stamps, and papered his first room with them. It is believed as a result of a wager. Under the mellow varnish there must now be hundreds of thousands; and report has it that many in semi-hidden corners are rare and valuable.

Lift gently from heat and pour slowly, while beating vigorously with a strong egg-beater, in a fine stream onto egg white which has been beaten until light but not stiff. Continue beating until frosting is stiff enough to stay in place, pour all at once onto cake and spread over surface with a few movements of a large, flat knife.

Standards Of Greatness

Wealth Or Titles To Judge Of An Individual's Pre-eminence

The mind of the average American is a curious mixture of materialism and sentiment, and we must bear those qualities in mind when we criticize him. He has a great big heart and a keen eye for the almighty dollar, which is, for him, to all intents and purposes, the mark and emblem of a man's success in life. Here, in Great Britain, titles, honors, orders and decorations are the rewards for pre-eminence. In America there is no "honors list." The only list that counts is the yearly statement of income tax paid by every citizen and published far and wide so that all can see how a man has risen above his fellows. No wonder, therefore, that everyone strives unceasingly to get rich—Sir George Armstrong in The London Observer.

Strain Of City Life

The stress of living in the cities is today a more potent factor in causing insanity than the loneliness of the isolated farm and settlement on which emphasis has been so frequently laid in the past. In Canada, according to Dr. W. M. English, medical superintendent of the Ontario Hospital, Brockville, with over 800 patients. On the other hand, telephones, motorcars and radios have broken down the isolation of the farmer and settler and insanity through loneliness is no longer found in the degree formerly known.

Growing Importance Of Alberta's Oil and Gas Fields

The steadily growing importance of Alberta's oil and gas fields is shown in recently published figures. The production of Alberta wells for 1928, is placed at 489,531 barrels as compared with 321,154 barrels in 1927. Of the 1928 production the Turner Valley field, in Southern Alberta, contributed 410,028 barrels of naptha, and 70,734 barrels of crude oil, the remaining 8,174 barrels coming from the Wainwright field. The total production of natural gas for the province in 1928 is placed at 14,148,881 cubic cubic feet as compared with 12,933,801 cubic million cubic feet in the previous year.

INTERIM POOL PAYMENT ON THE 1928 CROP

Winnipeg. — An interim payment on the 1928 crop totalling more than $25,000,000 is being distributed to Wheat Pool members of Western Canada, according to a statement by E. B. Ramsey, general manager of the Canadian Wheat Pool.

The payment is 12 cents per bushel on wheat grades one to five, and on flax and rye. Ten cents per bushel is being paid on number six wheat.

Manitoba Pool members are receiving the sum of $2,289,455.46 on deliveries of 18,408,000 bushels of wheat, and 703,760 bushels of flax and rye.

Members in Saskatchewan are receiving $17,499,433.34 on 146,414,000 bushels of wheat, and 3,165,500 bushels of flax and rye.

The Alberta Pool payment of $4,110,083.12 is on 33,000,000 bushels of wheat. The total amount distributed is $26,198,923.92.

The payment made at this time is the first payment to be made on grain of the 1928 crop following the initial payment made at the time of delivery by the grower. In 1928 the first interim payment was dated March 9, but pool officials state that the date of the payment was advanced this year as much as possible in order to accommodate the thousands of pool members who have been hard hit financially as a result of the very disastrous frost which occurred on August 23, 1928, and which was general over the three provinces.

The Saskatchewan crop was particularly damaged by this frost owing to the fact that there are so few districts in the province which were not affected to the extent of lowering the grade of the crop from two to four grades.

Commenting on this aspect of the 1928 crop, and on the payment now being made, A. J. McPhail, president of the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool said:

"Notwithstanding the relatively higher price for wheat which prevails now as compared with the heavy crop season of 1923-24 when the Alberta Pool alone was operating in Western Canada, and notwithstanding the exceptionally heavy crop harvested by Saskatchewan farmers in 1928, there is no question that the wheat grower has just cause to be greatly troubled over the financial returns from his efforts last year. By way of comparison it may be said that for the period of the crop year, August 1 to January 31, the grading of Saskatchewan Pool deliveries from the 1927 crop showed only 22.23 per cent, as falling into the grades from No. 4 to feed, while the corresponding figure for the crop of 1928 is 55.81 per cent. The cause of this greatly increased percentage of lower grades from the 1928 crop is the widespread frost which occurred in August, 1928."

Britain Will Adhere To Locarno Treaty

Has Not Considered Any Other Agreement With Foreign Powers

London, Eng.—Godfrey Locker-Lampson, under secretary of state for foreign affairs, assured the House of Commons that Great Britain would enter into no military agreement with other powers that would in any way be contrary to her obligations to Germany under the Locarno security pact.

He made this statement in answering one of the many questions propounded as a result of recent publication in Holland of an alleged military pact between France and Belgium, the particular question being: "Can assurance be given that no military discussion will be held with France or Belgium which would not include Germany, in order strictly to maintain British obligations under the Locarno pact?"

The reply was: "The member may be quite sure that we will do nothing contrary to the Locarno pact." Volleys of questions regarding the alleged Franco-Belgian military agreement, and reports that Great Britain had some connection with it, were fired at the government in the House. Godfrey Locker-Lampson made categorical denial of the rumors, saying:

"Apart from the treaty of Locarno no agreement involving a military commitment has been concluded since the war between this government and Belgium, nor is any military agreement or understanding in existence between the British government and that of any foreign country."

The Saskatchewan crop was particularly damaged by this frost owing to the fact that there are so few districts in the province which were not affected to the extent of lowering the grade of the crop from two to four grades.

Commenting on this aspect of the 1928 crop, and on the payment now being made, A. J. McPhail, president of the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool said:

"Notwithstanding the relatively higher price for wheat which prevails now as compared with the heavy crop season of 1923-24 when the Alberta Pool alone was operating in Western Canada, and notwithstanding the exceptionally heavy crop harvested by Saskatchewan farmers in 1928, there is no question that the wheat grower has just cause to be greatly troubled over the financial returns from his efforts last year. The cause of this greatly increased percentage of lower grades from the 1928 crop is the widespread frost which occurred in August, 1928."

Company officials announced that it is proposed to order another machine within the next six or eight weeks. This machine would be the third of its kind purchased.

No Divorce Court For Ontario
Ottawa.—Defeat in the House of Commons of the bill to establish divorce courts in Ontario saw party lines badly broken on the division. Introduced as a private member's measure by J. B. Woodworth (Lab., Winnipeg North Centre), the bill was defeated by 99 to 68. Premier Mackenzie King and Hon. Guthrie, acting Conservative leader, were not present for the division.

Died In Geneva
New York.—Frederick M. Harris, editor-in-chief of the publications of the Young Men's Christian Association, died in Geneva where he had gone last October for medical treatment, according to word received here by his associates.

Westminster Glee Singers

Famous Organization Making Tour Of Western Canada

Outstanding among the musical events of the present winter, is the visit of the Westminster Glee Singers, who are at present touring Western Canada. The excellence of this traditional group of singers is known throughout the Empire, and music lovers of the Canadian West are greeting with delight the appearance of these famous entertainers, seven of whom are boy contraltos. ## Application Is Dropped

Canadian Northeastern Not Building Railway Into Peace River Country

Victoria, B.C. — The Canadian Northeastern railway dropped its application for right to build into the Peace River country and will not conflict with any plans which may be made in that direction for the Pacific Great Eastern, the provincially-owned line. With its part of its original application dropped, approval of the private bills committee of the legislature was given to the company's request for right to build a line for 235 miles from Stewart, a tidewater port in northern British Columbia, to Fort Graham, in the central northern part of the province.

The Northeastern also dropped its request for right to build a branch up the Finlay river from Fort Graham for 100 miles, pending decision of the future of the government line.

PREMIER KING ON THE QUESTION OF RESOURCES

Ottawa.—The whole vexed question of the return of the natural resources to the western provinces was ventilated in the House of Commons recently. In a lengthy speech, Premier Mackenzie King reviewed the history of the natural resources problem and outlined the position today.

In brief, the situation at present, as dealt with by the prime minister, is as follows:

The province of Alberta is now considering an offer from the Dominion government of the return of its natural resources coupled with the payment to it of a subsidy amounting to $562,000 annually for all time.

Saskatchewan has refused an offer of the transfer of its lands "without any strings attached," and the payment of the present subsidy.

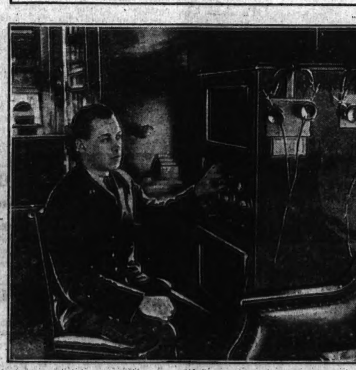

Agreement has been reached to transfer to British Columbia lands in the Peace River block and the railway belt. At present officers of the departments concerned are working on the necessary accounting having to do with the transfer.

With respect to Manitoba, a commission is now engaged on matters concerned with the handing over to that province of its lawful resources.

The Prime Minister made only passing reference to the Seven Sisters Falls lease to the Winnipeg Electric Company. The leader of the opposition had been critical of the haste which Mr. Bennett claimed prompted the government in its return of the natural resources to Manitoba.

Earlier in the session, the Premier continued, the same gentleman had condemned the government in its delay in dealing with this matter. Mr. King remarked, amid laughter, that "the whole reason of the haste was to avoid delay."

Radio Operator Has Travel Record

Trained operators in charge of radio-equipped cars in daily service on the Canadian National Railway travelled a total of 9,134,726 miles during 1928, and the most travelled operator during the twelve months was R. K. Anderson, who may well lay claim to a world's record for his performance. Mr. Anderson covered 153,050 miles on duty, a distance which represents the circumnavigation of the globe several times. This operator is usually on duty on board the International Limited, the fast daily train operating between Montreal and Chicago. Trains on eight runs on the National System carry radio equipped cars, the Canadian National Railway being the first in the world to offer radio as part of the service provided for passengers.

Famous Flyer In Accident

Col. Lindberg and His Fiancee, Miss Morrow, Meets With Mishap
Mexico City.—Colonel Charles A. Lindberg's flying skill saved the life of his fiancée, Miss Anne Morrow, when their plane capsized on landing at Valhalla Field.

The colonel is confined to bed in the American embassy residence with what embassy attaché describes as a "slightly dislocated shoulder blade." Miss Morrow was badly frightened, but not injured.

Colonel Lindberg was returning from an air trip of several hours with the girl whom he will marry. The aeroplane, a four-passenger monoplane named the "City of Wichita," had been crippled by the loss of a landing wheel and the colonel faced a situation of unusual danger with the chances favoring a crash.

He brought the plane safely to earth and taxied for thirty yards on one wheel with the axle of the missing wheel dragging on the ground. Suddenly the plane pitched forward and turned completely over.

Later, Colonel Lindberg declared "this is nothing at all. It is not an accident; it is simply a mishap."

Dynamite Plot Failed

Explosive Is Found In Office Of Premier Taschereau, Of Quebec
Quebec.—Questioned as to a rumor that an attempt had been made his life, Premier Taschereau stated that when he went to his office in the parliament buildings at 10:45 p.m. he found a stick of dynamite on the floor with a half-burned fuse attached. The fuse had been extinguished by some agency after burning a few inches.

Switching on the lights at once he noticed the dynamite lying on the floor.

Premier Taschereau had the explosive removed by police and it was discovered to be dynamite of the most powerful type.

Winnipeg.—Negotiations between the Winnipeg Electric Company and the Bracken Government regarding the Seven Sisters Power site were affected by any advance knowledge of the Hogg report conveyed to the private firm, Edward Anderson, K.C., president, stated recently before the Royal Commission investigating charges made by Colonel P. C. Taylor against the Bracken government. Mr. Anderson testified that the agreement was made after "real, genuine, honest, bona-fide negotiations."

The Winnipeg Electric Company would not have made the bargain as it resulted that they knew the nature of the Hogg report, Mr. Anderson stated, but would have "held out" for better arrangements. The report submitted by Dr. T. H. Hogg, consulting engineer for the Ontario Hydro Commission, has been regarded as the influence leading the Bracken government toward leasing the Seven Sisters site to the Winnipeg Electric Company.

That negotiations with the Bracken government almost "blow up" owing to the fact that A. W. McLimont, at that time president of the Winnipeg Electric Company, considered the government was "driving too hard a bargain," was stated by Mr. Anderson.

Counsel appearing before the Royal Commission have intended no imputations whatever against the character, integrity or sincerity of Dr. T. H. Hogg, who submitted an expert report to the Bracken government. It was announced by Chief Justice MacDonald, after an examination of documents.

A telegram had been received from Dr. Hogg referring to "insinuations" reflecting on his integrity and made at yesterday's session of the commission. It was not stated whether he would be called to appear, though his counsel had mentioned that he wished to be heard as soon as possible.

Employment Situation Shows Improvement

Better In Canada Than In Any February On Record

Ottawa.—Employment in Canada on February 1, was in better condition than on that date in any year on record, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Reports from 6,391 firms showed a total of 933,943 employees as compared with 921,404 on January 1.

The contraction on the prairie provinces was less than on February 1, 1928. The situation continued better than on the same date in any year on record. Manufacturing and logging advanced, while there was a shrinkage in trade, construction, transportation and communications.

The situation was also better in British Columbia as compared with the same date last year. There was substantial improvement in mining but logging, manufacturing and transportation were slacker.

Pioneer Lake Captain Dead

John Cousens Saw First Steamship To Sail Lake Superior

Port Arthur, Ont.—Martin Captain John Cousens is dead here aged 82 years. At Sault Ste. Marie he saw the passing of the Rescue, the first steamship to sail Lake Superior. He sailed on the Chicora, famous blockade runner.

In 1871 before the advent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, he carried mail over the ice route between Duluth and Port Arthur. He served with the Queen's Own in the Fenian Raid and was one of the guard of honor at the reading of the proclamation of Confederation in Toronto, in 1867. Later he served with Wolseley in the Northwest.

Forced To Swallow Knife
Toronto Thugs Use Inhuman Method On Victim
Toronto.—Angered at the small amount of money they found on his person, two thugs forced Angelo Averys, 39, Toronto, to swallow a jack knife, more than four inches in length.

Angelo is now in hospital where doctors hope to save his life.

According to the victim one of his associates attempted to make him swallow the knife with the blade open but his accomplice interfered, and the blade was closed.

Sir James, who was in his 78th year, died at the residence of his son, Major H. Harold Aikins, shortly after midnight. He had been ill for a week, when he suffered a heart attack.

Sir James had a brilliant career in law, politics, the church and business which won for him an international reputation. He was one of the founders of the Canadian Bar Association, and for many years was its president.

PRIORITY RIGHTS ARE CLAIMED BY TWO COMPANIES

Ottawa.—The bone of contention between the Canadian National Railway and the Canadian Pacific Railway, with regard to the branch line program, came up before the parliamentary committee on railways and canals. Except for one area, an agreement has been reached between the two companies in connection with their program. The single exception is the line projected between Melfort and Aberdeen, in Saskatchewan, to which both companies claim priority construction rights.

Sir Henry Thornton, president of the National Systems, told the committee that the Government owned road claimed this territory by virtue of the fact that 12 years ago, the old Canadian Northern had already started building there, and had already graded 19 miles of the 47 mile project. Four years ago, this line had been one which had been presented to the Government in the company's program, but with others it had been rejected by the Senate. He felt that the railway had given ample evidence of its good faith in proposing to carry on with the construction. Commenting on a protest by A. F. Totzke, of Humboldt, Sir Henry declared that the C.N.R. did not claim any part of Canada as exclusively Canadian National territory, but felt that reasonably and as a matter of common sense, that particular line, upon which work had already begun should be regarded as within the scope of C.N.R. construction.

Dr. P. Plimfort, K.C., counsel for the Canadian Pacific Railway, declared that last year, his company had carried on surveys, upon the representations of the inhabitants of this district, and on their declarations that the C.N.R. did not contemplate building a line there. He felt that the committee should grant the charter in order that it might keep faith with the public.

Death Of Sir James Aikins

Former Lieutenant-Governor Of Manitoba Passes Away

Winnipeg, Man.—Sir James Aikins, K.C., former lieutenant-governor of Manitoba, and a distinguished member of the Canadian bar, died early Friday morning.

Sir James, who was in his 78th year, died at the residence of his son, Major H. Harold Aikins, shortly after midnight. He had been ill for a week, when he suffered a heart attack.

Sir James had a brilliant career in law, politics, the church and business which won for him an international reputation. He was one of the founders of the Canadian Bar Association, and for many years was its president.

CONSERVATIVE OPPOSE.
TION TO PENSIONS

P. M. Christophers (Lab.), Rocky Mountain, congratulated the government on the making of provisions for Old Age Pensions and told the Conservative leader that every member of his party had voted against the measure at Ottawa; that a Conservative Senate had thrown the measure of the Federal House out. He knew the record of the Conservative party. It was dead, had been dead long in fact; and only required decent burial.

Mr. Christophers gave it as his opinion that on account of the lack of two great factors, iron ore and water transportation, a great era of industrial expansion in Alberta was not to be expected. In an analysis of the situation in the coal industry, he said he believed that while there was a possibility of an increase of the consumption by Ontario of Alberta lignites there would be a corresponding decrease in the near future of consumption of those fuels in Saskatchewan and Manitoba. They were unable to meet the price competition of American coal. The government should make some effort, as the mines themselves were too much dependent upon the railways to do that, to have a reduction made in the railway rates upon steam coal. The member then advocated that there be fairer methods of computing averages in the coal industry reports, both with respect to number of shifts worked and wages earned. The figures, he maintained, included the highly paid and permanently employed staff, and were therefore not a proper index of the status of the miners. The working class must have purchasing power to buy back what they produce. The government should make every effort to make life equitable for workers here; then people would come voluntarily and there would be no necessity for expensive immigration efforts.—U.F.A. Correspondent.

HOW TO LIVE 150 YEARS

NEW YORK, Mar. 3.—A 48-hour day, laboratory babies, synthetic Godstuffs, a 150-year age limit for humans, and two-hour work days are among the predictions made by Lord Birkenhead, British statesman, in an article "What the World will be 100 Years from Now," in the February Cosmopolitan magazine.

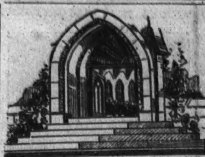

The 48-hour day would be accomplished, according to Lord Birkenhead "by utilizing tidal energy to diminish the speed of the earth's rotation."

In discussing the laboratory baby, Lord Birkenhead writes: "The results of much research show that the connection between a mother and her growing child is purely chemical. There is no valid reason why one day biologists should not be able perfectly to imitate that chemical connection in the laboratory."

Humans will be able to live 150 years, he writes, because by 2029 biologists will have learned the secrets of the living chemistry of the human body—or at least enough of it to relieve startling results. "Rejuvenation will be an ordinary and well recognized matter of a few injections at appropriate intervals," he said.

A GOOD TOWN

Put a peg of prosperity into your community by staying with it.

Always greet your neighbor with a grip of confidence. Criticize in a spirit of Godspeed. Say a good word even if it hurts. Remember that those who insist on hanging themselves will do it if given enough rope.

Give your neighbors a right to an opinion as long as they keep it to themselves.

Discuss questions involving your better welfare instead of arguing with them.

Apply the Golden Rule regardless of consequences.

Back up your churches and real estate affiliations. You will feel better and besides are setting a good example for the young people.

Give the young people plenty of pleasure.

Failures reflect on the entire town. See what you can do to keep your neighbors on top of the water. Don't let them drown.

Let's have more handshakes and arm in arm conferences with a good will parting. It adds to the day's events.

Let's break the shell and step out. The world is wondering what we are going to do next. Let's show 'em.—Sassich Review.

Christ enlisted the energies of the De Mille organization for a year. It included the acting of hundreds of fine players and the construction of tremendous sets of Bible scenes such as has never before been attempted.

For the first time a picture producer has re-created the Temple at Jerusalem, the Palace of Herod and many other historical locales of the Gospel story. As an example of the physical elaborateness of the picture, it is worthy of mention that 10,000 objects or properties pertaining to the primitive Christian era were made for and used in the picture.

Jeanne Macpherson with her adaptation and Mr. De Mille with his directing genius are said by all the reviewers to have made the history live and to have surpassed in tenderness, humanity and gripping dramatic power any previous handling of the great theme. The cast is said to be one of the most imposing ever seen in a picture production.

An old man went to visit his son at the university. His son cautioned him to be very dignified like the Dean. He said: "You know, dad, we go by numbers here. It's a bit of modernism. Mine is 36." The next day the father went to the Dean to make inquiries about the son's work. The Dean politely asked what his caller wanted. "Well—er—" replied the old man, "You see, I'm the father of 36." "Congratulations," exclaimed the Dean, clapping him on the back, "I'm the father of 15 myself."

Blairmore hockey team is well deserving of congratulation on its success in winning its way to the provincial championship. Though rival teams in the Pass towns have tasted defeat at their hands, yet this does not lessen the pride these teams feel in the Crow league being so ably represented in the play-offs. Their success is a tribute to good team work and effective coaching, and hockey fans and rival players will hope they have as good success in the inter-provincial play-offs if they are successful in winning the provincial championship. It is something to be proud of to have a team from the Pass as a contender for the Allan Cup, the prized trophy of senior amateur hockey in Canada.—The Coleman Journal.

Mrs. Harry Hannan has returned home to Lethbridge, after paying a visit to Mrs. Doyle for several days.

Miss Nora Brown, of Pincher Creek, who has been the guest of her sister here, Miss Gladys Brown, returned home on Friday.

The whist drive, billed to take place at the home of Mrs. M. A. Murphy on March 5th, in aid of the cemetery fund, was postponed on account of weather conditions and will now be held on Friday night of this week, at 8 o'clock.

In spite of bad roads on Saturday night last, the I.O.O.F. hall was packed to standing when a musical comedy, "The Chinese Garden," was staged. The stage decorations were exceptionally attractive, representing a fairy land of flowers in the Orient.

The bright and many-colored costumes worn by the performers were in harmony with the garden in which they played. Every feature of the play bespoke gaiety and pleasure from beginning to end. All parts of the play were rendered well and in pleasing style, and with both ease and grace. The cast was: Mrs. Robert Littleton, Mrs. C. J. Bundy, Ketha Tustian, Aileen Cooper, Beatie Cooper, Jean Porter, Edith Murphy, Verdun Leigh, Barbara Bundy, Clara Bundy, Sylvia Murphet and Margaret Gilmor.

Mr. Arthur Tustian, who played the violin throughout the evening, was accompanied by Miss Isabel Morrison at the piano. Around thirty dollars was realized, which will go towards the funds of the Anglican and United churches here.

A special meeting of the Cowley Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. M. A. Murphy on Thursday evening last, for the purpose of arranging for a succession of money-making affairs, in order to raise funds to plant three thousand trees around the Cowley cemetery when spring opens. The result of the meeting was a whist drive at the home of Mrs. Murphy on March 5th, a St. Patrick's dance at the home of Mrs. George Porter on March 15th, and a canvass of the district by Mrs. E. S. Easterbrook for donations by public subscription. It was also decided that each member would give ten cents for her refreshments at the meetings. So far in this undertaking, a feeling of sympathy has prevailed and with the general good will of the public, which the Institute is forced to depend upon for support, it should not be lacking in funds when the time comes to plant the trees. Donations of work have been offered and are appreciated in the same degree as those of money. A wreath of flowers was sent to the funeral of the departed husband of one member, who died on February 21st, and a donation of several dollars is being sent to the Woods Christian Home at Calgary, by the W.L. Mrs. Fortier, the retiring president, has invited both the Cowley and Lundbreck Institutes to her home for a social evening, sometime in March.

I urge my friends to take it as I am sure they will receive the same benefit I did."—Mrs. M. M. McMillan, Yonkers, Ontario.

Productivity Of Mosquitoes

One Lono Mosquito Reproduces Millions Yearly, Says Scientist
The normal productivity of one lone female mosquito in a year is 129,375,000,000 offspring, said Dr. Thomas J. Headlee, chief entomologist of the New Jersey agricultural experiment station, when addressing the annual convention of the New Jersey Mosquito Extermination Association, however, Dr. Headlee said, only 79,975,500,000 of these should be counted as pests, for they are active, buzzing, biting, egg-laying females. The others are mere males which do not bite.

Britain's Wheat Market Valuable To Canada

Interesting Facts Brought Out In Report Published From Ottawa.
The market in Great Britain is worth twice as much to the Canadian wheat grower as the markets of all the rest of the world taken together. That is a fact that stands out in a report published from Ottawa giving the export figures for the present crop year up to date. Putting it another way, if all other countries barred our wheat by excluding tariffs, the Canadian farmer could still find a market for two-thirds the amount of wheat he now produces in Great Britain. Or, if Britain barred our wheat, we would have to find buyers elsewhere for three times the amount of wheat we are able to sell in other countries at present.

Canadian wheat—and every other Canadian product—has a preference in Great Britain. The proof is that no other importing country in Europe admits our wheat on the same favorable terms. Should Britain ever adopt a tariff, there is no doubt whatever that Canadian wheat would be admitted on the most favorable conditions granted to any wheat-growing country. A tariff is being actually proposed there in order that a financial preference could be given to Canadian wheat. The British market is the permanent outlet for Canada's surplus wheat crop, incomparably the largest outlet there is, and the largest there is likely to be. That is a fact which Canadians ought to keep in mind when they think of international trade—and when they are thinking of the amount of imported goods.—Edmonton Bulletin.

Heart Trouble Hands and Feet Numb and Cold

Mrs. Wm. Fowler, Auburn, Ont., writes:—"Several years ago I was troubled with my heart and nerves so bad, at times, my hands would become numb and cold. I took doctor's medicine for a while, but it did me little or no good. I happened to see advertised and started taking them at once, and continued for some time, and since then I have had no return of my trouble."

Dirigible Flight Delayed

Giant British Craft Not Making Trip To Canada Until July
The flight of the dirigible R-100 from England to Canada will probably be made towards the end of May. It was learned at the department of national defence, it had been set for the end of May, but technical improvements to the craft are being made which will necessitate delay.

Officials of the department regard the flight as one of the most important steps in inter-empire communication so far attempted. Possibility of a route to Australia across Canada is not considered beyond the bounds of possibility.

Asthma Victims. The man or woman subject to asthma is indeed a victim. What can be more terrifying than to suddenly be seized with paroxysms of choking which seem to threaten the existence of life itself. From such a condition Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy has brought many to completely restored health and happiness. It is known and prized in every section of this broad land.

What "It" Is
Perhaps this can be applied generally to all husbands, but a woman in the Wilkeson police court recently defined the word "it" as used by a famous woman novelist. The clerk pointed to a man in court and said "is that your husband?" She replied, "Yes, sir, that's it."

CHAPTER XV.—Continued

For a moment Connie was silent. "When—when my dreams come true," she responded with an embarrassed smile.

Then he told her of the city and its ways and the things people did. She listened, not with amazement, but with a contented smile, as though what he told her was confirmation of her dreams. But when he told her of the grand opera, the music, the costumes and the singing, her grey eyes wide with longing, she sighed deeply.

Donald's voice trailed to a drowsy close, his chest, full and full again, his features relaxed. He felt as though he were floating, exquisitely floating, on a sea of fleecy clouds that was bearing him softly away. A delicious languor enthralled him, an enchantment drowsy and dim. He felt himself drifting, drifting, drifting.

He was asleep. The willows at the lower end of the meadow were pushed cautiously aside, and Hand's head appeared in the opening. For two days he had lain hidden awaiting an opportunity to waylay Donald. The day after the fight he had boarded the train for the coast, but had slipped from the car at the station below.

His face—unexpressed, at its best—was now a horrible sight. The thick lips were swollen and cracked, the eyes discoloured and puffed, and the broken teeth bared in a snarl as he saw Donald lying by the stream. Every hour since the fight Hand's hatred for Donald had grown blacker and fiercer. He would show him that he, Old Hand, deserved his reputation as a fighter. He would hold this crippled man helpless while he showered blows on his unprotected face, make him cry out for mercy, on his knees, perhaps kill him. His hatred grew hotter and deeper as he watched him lying peacefully below the girl who had been the cause of the fight in which he had been ignominiously whipped.

Connie sat gazing down on the sleeper. A sudden thought seized her, bringing a warm flush to her cheeks. Why not? No one would ever know. Would she dare? She glanced timidly about her, then leaned slowly over, her curls falling about her face, and touched her soft lips to Donald's cheek.

A bluejay screamed derisively. Connie came to her feet, her face crimson. Donald stirred, opened his eyes, and painfully raised himself. "I'm sorry, Connie," he apologized. "It was very rude of me to go to sleep."

A moment later he walked down the hill. Connie accompanied him a short distance, then turned up a steep path, and from a high, rocky ridge she watched his retreating figure as he turned toward the den.

A huge bucket on a cable, that had been used during construction for carrying down and material across the roaring chasm below the ruin, still hung above the boiling waters. For Donald there was a certain thrill, a keen exhilaration, in swinging in mid-air in this crude conveyance. He stepped into the bucket and with his one good arm pulled it along the rusty cable.

The Breed, hidden near the trail, saw Donald as he walked toward the dam. The venomous look in his eyes gave place to one of strained interest as he saw the two men skulking menacingly after the unsuspecting man. With a feeling of malignant exultation, as he sensed disaster to the man he hated, he hobbled to the trail and furtively followed.

From the heights above Connie saw the shocking figures as they crouched low against the edge of the dark spruce and at once divided their murderous object. For as instant she was paralyzed with terror. Her lips refused to move and her limbs grew numb.

The men moved cautiously as they approached their intended victim, fearing that he might be armed. As Hand saw Donald standing over the river a look of furtive elation crossed his features. Here was a chance to dispose of his enemy with no trace of the crime. He tore a fire-axe from the wall of the tool house and ran to the awaiting cable.

"Joel! Joel! Stop them. Stop them!" Screeching again, she plunged straight down the hillside in a mad race to reach the scene of action. Running like a deer, stumbling and falling, her breath coming in short gasps, she ran wildly on. Snarls of the thorny crabapple tree at her, devil's-club lacerated her face and hands, but she felt no pain. "O God," she prayed aloud, "help me to save him! Help me save him!"

Donald's face blanched at the sound of the axe as it hit into the heavy cable. He looked down at the jagged rocks and seething waters below. Then with closed eyes and a prayer on his lips he saw his mad enemy at the rope. Desperately he tugged with both hands, although the pain from his broken wrist sent a wave of torment up his arm that sickened him.

No man can measure the speed of thought in a crisis, even the sluggish brain of the Breed functioned rapidly. Connie was not for him. Her happiness was bound up in the man working feverishly at the haul-bucket. There was not one chance in a million that he would gain the safety of the cliff before the strands parted to plunge him to eternity. As he heard the crashing of Connie's slender body as she tore down the hill, a softness crept into his eyes. With a gasp of incredulity he saw the girl, a small bit of fur hid a minute germ of life that would build a plant as large as his parent when, dropped by the friendly wind, it reaches a fertile spot. The steadily continuing were sending out a life-dust as tiny as that from the smaller plants. Thistles, cat-tails and asters hurried to join the silken clouds until the air was misty with these germ balloons, seeking their winter's rest. The red elderberry and its magenta, neighbour, the thimble berry, with its translucent Scotch cap, gave to the woods a material flame.

A curious timidity had come over the birds; not only were they quiet but they were no longer to be found in their usual haunts. In some retired spot they were moulted. While the weather was at its best, and food was the most plentiful, they were dressing themselves in a new set of feathers for their long flight to the south. The tops of the tall pines were filled with sweet twitterings, of flutterings out and in, wing trails and quick short flights. A flock of wax-wings had gathered for the migration. They would not leave for some time yet, but the change had come. Birds from the north had arrived, creeping south by easy stages, taking plenty of time in their journey—the freest creatures that live, staying or going as they feel inclined.

at the prostrate body, turned and fed terror-stricken to the woods. Hand hesitated for a moment, then followed heavily after.

At this moment, Connie, with clothes torn and hair dishevelled, broke from the woods, and with a cry of pity flung herself to the ground by the Breed's side and placed his head on her lap. The eyes of the wounded man flickered slightly open. He tried to speak, but a strong convulsion shook his frame from head to foot and he writhed in desperate agony.

Connie's face as she lifted it to Donald was drawn with grief. "Get me some water please," she said brokenly.

The dying man's lips moved. Connie leaned closer.

"I—I love you," he whispered faintly, "I saved him—for you."

A ghastly pallor spread over his features and his lips were widely parted in a struggle for breath. Again his lips moved in a fluttering whisper. "Connie—will you—kill me?"

As Connie pressed her tear-wet face to his pain-contorted features relaxed in a smile of wonderful peace and his eyes closed.

When Donald returned Connie's head was bowed and she was weeping softly.

"How is he, Connie?" he questioned gently.

"He's dead."

Donald removed his hat and knelt with bowed head.

"He died for me," he choked.

"And for me," she whispered inaudibly.

CHAPTER XVI.

Lost, we change of monotony, Nature gives us a change of colour for each of the flowering seasons. Flowers of every hue may be found through the different months. Pink for May, red for June, blue and pink for July, and during August royal robes of gold and purple clothe the hills and valleys.

The last week of August brought to Summit Lake a pageantry of colour that the Coast region is denied owing to the persistent rains that retard the ripening of the leaf. The deciduous trees were already with drawing their life-giving fluid from the leaves to store it in their roots until spring. The willow, vine maple, birch and alder along the creeks and lake-shores held touches of autumnal colouring; while on the hills the yellowed leaves of the cottonwood were brilliant in their setting of sober dark green conifers.

A gaudy red were the vine maples, but there was a leaky beauty greater than theirs. The flowering dogwood blazed from every nook and cranny. The ripening of the dogwood gives it leaves a flame that burns with a fierce glow that furthest from the ripening deepens until its crimson flames become the loveliest hue of the British Columbia woods.

The tree, or willow herb, that in July gives to the open spaces a gorgeous tint of bluey pink, were now losing a flock of seeds to float away like tiny parachutes. Each small bit of fur hid a minute germ of life that would build a plant as large as his parent when, dropped by the friendly wind, it reaches a fertile spot. The steadily continuing were sending out a life-dust as tiny as that from the smaller plants. Thistles, cat-tails and asters hurried to join the silken clouds until the air was misty with these germ balloons, seeking their winter's rest. ### Little Helps For This Week

"And Jesus saith unto them, How many leaves have ye?—Matthew xv. 34.

So still, dear Lord, in every place Thou standest by the tolling folk With love and pity in Thy face, And givest of Thy help and grace To those who meekly bear the yoke.

The lives which seem so poor and low,

The hearts which are so cramped and dull,

The baffled hopes, the impulse slow, Thou takest, touchest all,—and lo! They blossom to the beautiful.

—Susan Coolidge.

"How many leaves have ye?" It is the Lord's first question; and the hands of those who really want His help search their robes to see what they have hidden there. One brings his joy; another brings his pain; another brings his helpless desire; another brings his poor resolution; another has nothing to bring except his sorrow that he has nothing. It is a poor collection,—only seven leaves and a few little fishes,—but it is enough: His blessing falls upon them, and they come back to the souls which gave them up to Him multiplied into the means of healthy, holy happy life.—Phillips Brooks.

Savings Certificates Popular
That Alberta Government Provincial Savings Certificates are recognized as a sound investment is indicated by the fact that since during 1928 reached a total of $815,960 over and above all withdrawals. The net purchases during the year were more than double those of 1927. A report for the year by the Treasury Department places the total amount of outstanding savings certificates at $11,264,940. These certificates are held largely by farmers of the province.

No Ground For Pessimism
Statistics Show Large Percentage of University Graduates Remain in Canada.

An independent survey of figures dealing with the whereabouts of our university graduates is somewhat enlightening in the way of refuting exaggerated statements to the effect that they are flocking to the United States. The latest available statistics show that 82.8 per cent. of the living graduates of the University of Toronto are resident in Canada and only 13.6 per cent. in the United States; the University of Western Ontario has retained 80 per cent., while 93 per cent. of the University of Manitoba's graduates have remained in their native country. This story finds a repetition in almost every college in the Dominion. Moreover, many graduates have found their way elsewhere only temporarily and will return in due course. Evidently there is not so much room for pessimism as many have imagined.

STORMY WEATHER HARD ON BABY

The stormy, blustery weather which Canadians experience during February and March is extremely hard on babies and young children. Conditions make it necessary for the mother to keep them confined to the house, where the atmosphere is often stale and badly ventilated. The little ones catch cold and their whole system becomes racked. To guard against this a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the home. Baby's Own Tablets are just what the mother needs for her little one. They are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach, break up colds and simple fevers; banish constipation and indigestion and make the cutting of teeth easy. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Only the office with no salary attached is obliged to seek the man.

To Check "FLU," Grippe
Fights the Germs in the Throat Before They Invade Other Parts of the Body.
EFFECTIVE PREVENTIVE MEASURES EXPLAINED

Simple precautions taken now will enable you to fight dreaded "flu" which is sweeping rapidly through the whole country. The germs of influenza gain access to the body through the mouth and throat. Keep the throat healthy and you go a long way towards stopping the trouble. An effective means of prevention is to gargle the throat three or four times daily with Nerville. Half a teaspoonful of Nerville in water makes a most efficient gargle. The germ-killing power of Nerville quickly destroys any bacteria in the mouth or throat. If the chest is sore, if the throat is hoarse, if you have a cough—be sure, to rub the neck and chest with Nerville. Every drop of it will rub in, and out will come the congestion.

Or course it is absolutely necessary to house-clean the system with Dr. Hamilton's Pills which stimulate the eliminatory organs and rid the system of disease-breeding wastes. This combination treatment of Nerville and Dr. Hamilton's Pills will give prompt and entirely satisfactory results.

WINDOLITE The Improved Glass Substitute
MADE IN ENGLAND
COMES WITH A MESSAGE OF HEALTH

THIS sun is the all-powerful life producer. Nature's universal disinfectant and germ destroyer, as well as a stimulant and tonic. WINDOLITE is the sun's most important ally.

Medical research has definitely proved that from the point of view of Health and Hygiene, the most effective among the sun's rays are the Ultra-Violet rays, which possess the greatest power for the prevention and cure of disease and debility.

Science has further established that ordinary window glass does not allow the passage of Ultra-Violet rays, so that by using glass we are artificially excluding these vital health-giving rays. Therefore, the invention of WINDOLITE has completely satisfied the long-felt want. Exhaustive experiments have conclusively proved that it is the most effective substitute for glass, that it freely admits the Ultra-Violet rays, and that its use has the most beneficial effect on the growth and development of plants and chickens and on the well-being of cattle, enabled for the first time to have healthy light instead of darkness in their sheds.

Indeed, the discovery of WINDOLITE has during the last six years completely revolutionized gardening, given a new stimulus to poultry breeding, increasing the egg-laying capacity and fertility of chickens, has greatly improved the health of cattle and the growing time used in domestic and household requirements.

It keeps out cold and it will not crack or chip—cuts with an ordinary pair of scissors and is easy to fit. WINDOLITE is supplied in rules half length but in only 36 inches only. A square yard of WINDOLITE weighs about 14 lbs., while a square yard of glass of ordinary thickness, weighs about 125 to 130 lbs. The improved WINDOLITE requires no varnish. WINDOLITE is made in England.

Word has just been received in Macleod of the sudden death of Mrs. George Altham in the New Westminster, B.C., hospital from the result of an operation. Mrs. Altham is well known in Macleod, having been a resident of the town for about ten years, when her husband was superintendent of the public utilities in Macleod. The family came to Macleod in 1908 and after a residence of ten years they moved to Hillcrest, where they now reside and where Mr. Altham is chief engineer of the Hillcrest Collieries. It would appear that Mrs. Altham just recently went to New Westminster, where their eldest son Cecil, has been residing for a number of years, and while there went to the hospital for the operation. Mrs. Altham was 50 years of age and she leaves her husband and two sons, Cecil at New Westminster and Leslie at Hillcrest. The funeral took place at the coast—Macleod Times.
